MAIL-IN FORM FOR FLEECES
ROCKY MOUNTAIN ALPACA FLEECE HARVEST 2007

Fleeces must be shipped or mailed for arrival by November 2, 2007. Entries must be postmarked by October 7, 2007 for regular entry or by October 15, 2007 for late entries with extra fee.

Include $15 extra per fleece for return service and handling. Entry form must be clearly marked "Mail-In Fleece" so that we will be expecting them. If sent UPS, please email the Tracking Number to:

Linda Skultety, Superintendent zimmerbilly@aol.com

Utilize the smallest box possible for shipping. Place your fleece in the unmarked clear plastic bag normally used for showing. Insert a vacuum cleaner hose (cover with an old stocking) into the neck of the bag and deflate the fleece. It will restore itself when we open the box and bag. Place this completed form inside the box.

Ship via U. S. Postal Service, UPS, FedEx, etc. to: Linda Skultety, Show Super.
11421 E. Heidemann Ave.
Franktown, CO 80116
ph: 303-688-1437

Fleece from : _____ _____
(farm name) (owner name)

Alpaca name(s):

_____ ARI # _____

_____ ARI # _____

_____ ARI # _____

_____ ARI # _____

After show, fleeces will be returned to:

Farm Name _____

Owner Name _____

Shipping address for UPS: _____

_____

City _____ State _____ Zip _____

Release of Liability:

I, _____, understand and accept that I am shipping this fleece (s) at my own risk and will hold Alpaca Breeders of the Rockies, Inc., the Show Staff and The Ranch, at Larimer County Fairgrounds and Events Complex harmless for loss or damage to fleece(s). I understand that there are risks involved with shipping and although fleece(s) will be returned via UPS Ground with tracking service, there is the possibility of loss or damage. Late delivery and or damage may prevent fleece from arriving by November 2, deadline for arrival of fleece and ABR and Show Staff will be held harmless if fleece does not arrive in time to be shown.

signed: _____

date: _____